Nikki McDonald, N4C Monthly Digital Competition is due October 8th.

The club will be displaying photos at Papillion Library in December and January. Nikki McDonald sent out an email on specifics, direct any questions to her. Members should bring photos to the November 5th or 19th meetings.

Nikki McDonald commented on doing holiday pantry collection for Nebraska Methodist College students again this year and requested Eva and Penny compile a list of needed items.

Program:

Paul Evans gave a presentation on plant photography with his inverted camera photo setup box for staging plant material for collages. He also showed several photos and color conversion. Great program, helpful ideas.

Next meeting: October 1st Show & Tell
